Consumer Declaration

☐ I expressly request and agree that the Service Provider begins performing the agreed services before the statutory withdrawal period has expired.

☐ I acknowledge that my statutory right of withdrawal may be lost once the Service Provider has fully performed the agreed service, provided that all applicable legal requirements have been met.

I also understand that, if I validly withdraw from the contract after performance of the services has begun, I may be required to pay a proportionate amount for the services already provided, subject to the applicable statutory conditions.

This declaration applies only to the project identified above and does not replace the contract or the statutory withdrawal information.
